ROADMAP

Recent Updates to Parchment 7 Send

In Limited Availability:

Parchment has developed new functionality that is being used by a limited group of institutions. If you're interested in participating in the Limited Availability program, please let your AE know! These features will go into General Availability in Q1 2017.

Q1 2016

BRANDED ORDERING:

Bring your school colors and a custom header banner and messaging to the ordering page to help students know they are in the right place. Upload your logo, pick the color scheme you like best.

Q2 2016

ORDER ANY CREDENTIAL TYPE:

Allow your students to place orders for any credential type, such as Diplomas, Certificates, Apostilles etc. Each document will have it's own Document ID for tracking by the student, receiver, or you! You get to choose the types of documents you want included in ordering site for students to choose.

Q2 2016

TO DO LIST UPDATES:

With many types of credentials or documents being ordered, the way you use your to do list will change to accommodate. Each credential ordered will have it's own line item, and can be tracked individually.

Q2 2016

DETAILED ORDER HISTORY & EDITING:

A detailed order history will show much more information about the student's request. Credential type, status, payment details, and destination information are all included in a comprehensive view.

Q3 2016

PRINT AND MAIL STUDENT ATTACHMENTS:

Parchment will print student attachments and mail them along with the transcript to the destination.

Coming Soon to Parchment Send

While we don't expect this outlook to change we might need to reshuffle a few dates. For now, here are a few of the things we are planning to release in the upcoming quarters.

Q4 2016

PRINT TRACKING:
Parchment will be able to verify addresses with your students supply and track mailed documents with USPS and FedEx.

Q4 2016

ADDRESS VERIFICATION:
Automatically verify addresses for your learners and the destinations they want as they type the address into the order form. Addresses are dynamically verified with the standard USPS database and a confirmation is provided.

Q1 2017

THIRD PARTY ORDERING:
A simplified ordering and delivery work flow will make it easier for third party organizations to order transcripts. They'll be responsible for providing student consent.
